

Burning for your love.

(Åberg Songs Ltd. 96-05-18)

And don't you cry for me,
I've seen it all.
I'm really feeling free
and standing tall.
You left me in the rain,
said goodbye perhaps we met again.
The sky was falling down.
I was burning, burning for your love.

But you just walked away
from what we had.
I can't forget that day.
What you did was mad.
But there's a healing force.
Time can cure a wounded heart, of course.
Ten years were passing bye.
I was burning, burning for your love.

And so one day we met
there on the bus.
It was so hard to get,
you talked about us.
You said you'd missed me so
and that you really didn't want to go.
Your heart was bleeding now.
You were burning, burning for my love.

And don't you cry for me,
I've seen it all.
I'm really feeling free
and standing tall.
You left me in the rain,
said goodbye perhaps we met again.
The sky was falling down.
I was burning, burning for your love.
