- 1      C                    G                    Am7                    G                    C    G Am7 G
I realized the day you left that there were things I didn't understand
C                    G                    Am7                    G                    C    G Am7 G
It never once occurred to me that there was time to take you by the hand
Dm                    Am                    G9                    G
It went too far for you to give a reason why
Dm                    Am                    G9                    G
My letters were returned without reply
Am                    Em                    F                    G                    G7
The lines to you are closed no matter how I try, do I know, why it's so....

Refräng

- F                    G7 Em Am Dm                    G C                    F
Join the play, day by day, there's a role you can play
F                    G7 Em Am Dm                    G C F
You may score low today, but the end's far away
- 2      I've learned to live without you now and there's another woman by my side

You saw another side of me , a side I use experience to hide

It's easy to imagine life to turn your way

I realized too late to make you stay

What is the point in speculating anyway...do I know , where to go

Refräng

- Stick Em                    F                    G                    C
But, we never know, when it's right or wrong to go
Am                    Em                    Dm                    G6 G G7sus4 G
If you have lost the track, don't look back, look back. .back
- 3      I heard that you're alone today and chose to be without another man

I hope it's not because of me it's natural for anyone who can

You have to practise well, before you get it right

when there's no feeling there will be no fight

Experience can bring us light into the night, yes I know , that it's so
