

What a shame

(Åberg Songs Ltd. 01-09-06)

Intro: E H A (lösa strängar)

                  E                  H A                  E          H A
He's breaking my heart again,          that's twice in a week
                  E                  H A                  E          H A
He just wanna be good friend,          that's not what I seek

I want everything he's got, a 60 feet boat
A house in Conneticut, a fancy fur coat

Refräng:

          F#m7                  H          E7                  A
What a shame he's already dating a nurse from the second ward
          F#m7                  H                  E H A
What a shame he couldn't be waiting, be waiting for me

That nurse is no good for him, I know it so well
Last night when they had a swim, she suddenly fell

I didn't believe my eyes, cause she was a he
I really can't stand such lies, I'm asking can he?

Refräng + stick:

          F#m7                  H          E7                  A
What a shame he's already dating a nurse from the second ward
          F#m7                  H                  Hm7                  E
What a shame he couldn't be waiting, I'm longing for him, my Lord
A H  Ab7 C#m          A          H          E
He must be mine, I don't know why it can't be so
A H  Ab7 C#m          F#m7                  A          H7sus4          E
He will feel fine, we are meant for each other, hopefully he'll see me too

So next time you hear from me, the nurse in ward eight
Ask nice for a cup of tea, it won't be to late

I know that you are a man, or could I be wrong
If you just would touch my hand, I'd sing you a song
